REFLECTIONS by Gilda

May 2012

Hope you all are doing well. I haven't felt my best since before Christmas, but I had all kinds of test and I am healthy. I heard stress can kill you but I didn't know it made you sick. Ha! Guess I am stressed.

Oh, exciting news! We are expecting a new grandbaby in Au-gust. Our son Morgan and wife Bethany will have another addition to the family. Their daughter Brielynd is a real cutie and so smart. I hope their second one is as good. Brielynd will be 3 in November so it will be a good time for a new sibling.

Daughter Tamson and husband Keith have real cuties, too. Car-lie will be 7 in June. She loves 1st grade and is such a little artist. The twins do and say the cutest things. Tamson doesn't let them slow her down. They are good little "goers." She goes to Bible study each week, hosts their Life Group every two weeks and sings on the praise team at church and even takes the twins visiting with her. Whew! She makes me tired. (I need to get pictures of all the grandkids on our website so you can see them.)

We've had one revival and it was like a homecoming for we have been there several times and have known some of the people for about 40 years. It snowed Sunday and our night service was canceled. There were 8 inches of the most beautiful snow I have ever seen and it looked like a winter wonderland. I didn't go unprepared. I looked like I couldn't be cut with a hatchet.

We return to Honduras soon. This time we are building a house, doing surgical clinics, feeding folks, working with children and sharing the love of Jesus. Pray that God's will be done.

Well, I hit the BIG 65 before long. Can't believe it arrived so quickly! God is good and I am so blessed. People like you have made life such a joy. I thank God for each of you and pray you feel His love and joy. Love you all bunches. Till next time.....
