REFLECTIONS by Gilda

Jul 2013

This has been quite a year thus far. It is hard to believe life can change so quickly, but I guess that is why the Bible says we should be ready because we don't know the hour or time when the Lord will return. I though Dale's time had come. When he passed out, he turned blue, his eyes rolled back in his head and he had no pulse and looked dead. I can't tell you how that felt, but I hope none of you ever experience it. In one month Dale went from being fairly healthy to being on the verge of death. His problem would not have been found had he not passed out, so I praise God that it led to finding out he had very little blood going through his atrial valve. Gos is so good! That is a praise report!

Our Board of Directors met and it was decided that ministry would continue as long as God opened doors and people continue to support the work. We are naturally slowing down because churches do not have many revivals anymore, and we are getting older and don't have the energy we once had. This means our ministry is supported 100% by those who feel led to give to our work. Dale is still passionate about missions and hopes to continue in that direction. We will serve as long as we feel God is directing us. Thanks to all of you who pray for us and give to make our ministry possible. Please pray for our work and direction for our ministry.

Seem forever since we saw our grandbabies. I can't wait for Dale to be released and we can travel once more and see them. Carlie will be 8. Luke and Lela will be 4 the first part of June. Blakely has her 1st birthday in August, and Brielynd will be 4 in November. They are all growing up so quickly. I hope we can live to see them have a few more birthdays, but we will take what we get. We are so blessed by great children and great grandchildren!

Enjoy your life and loved ones, for life is short. Love you all...
